

Oasis Blog Team Application

This application is for people who are interested in posting for the Oasis blog—www.oasisblog.net. We need people first and foremost who have a passion for God, and want to pursue Him through posting photos, written entries, quotes, Scripture, personal experiences, songs, videos and anything else you feel lead to share online.

Guidelines

1. Once you have submitted your application and receive a postcard in the mail confirming your acceptance to the Oasis Blog Team, don't hesitate to start freely sending posts to either Brad Zook (bzook@brookside.net) or Olivia Wolfe (livwolfe@yahoo.com).
2. The purpose of each post should be to glorify God and to encourage and build up readers, ultimately leading them to worship Christ. This is also not a place to vent frustrations or negative emotions.
3. Occasional Oasis Blog Team meetings will take place throughout the year as well. Please try to attend these meetings, so that students can grow as a team and share ideas for the Oasis Blog.
